

Georgia Artist of the Year Making a Difference

Georgia Artist of the Year, Tina Adams Stoffel is making a difference one brushstroke and one word at a time.

Inspirational artist-author, Adams Stoffel, was selected Artist of the Year by the worldwide Corporate Livewire Prestige Awards for making a positive impact on the community.

Tina's Fine Arts owner Tina Adams Stoffel is an inspirational artist and author who was chosen Artist of the year by the worldwide Corporate Live Wire Prestige Awards. In September, she was recognized at the awards reception in New York City for making a positive impact on the community as an innovative market leader of business achievement and championing the best in her field.

“I am incredibly honored and excited being chosen Georgia Artist of the Year,” says Tina “As an abuse and trauma survivor, inspiring others to persevere through life's difficulties and major challenges has always been a strong passion of mine”.

Tina has overcome various forms of abuse on her own and now uses her art and writing to inspire others to become the best version of themselves.

In 2020, during the first year of COVID-19 pandemic, Tina self published her first book, titled My Wild Life, and held her first solo exhibition highlighting the inspirational paintings representing each chapter in her book which is being re-edited for a new larger scale release.

To discover more about Tina, visit TinasFineArts

Contact Information

Name: Tina Adams Stoffel

e-mail: admin@TinasFineArts.com

Organization: Tina's Fine Arts

Website: <https://www.TinasFineArts.com>

Media Kit: <https://tinasfinearts.com/media-kit/>