Local Artist, Tina Stoffel, Launches Her New Book 'My Wild Life' and Art Exhibition

(Marietta, GA, September 21, 2020) On October 10 at RobertKent Galleries, Georgia artist and author, Tina Stoffel, will premier her encouraging new book 'My Wild Life' and art exhibition with artist talks at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Through her own life experiences and this 20-month long project, her motivational true story will encourage us all to pursue our dreams and overcome obstacles from trauma to life's everyday challenges.

"Having survived abuse along with my mother," Tina says, "Each chapter is represented by a symbolic painting". This has truly been a labor of love working through pain and healing as I wrote and painted my experiences. My prayer is the book and paintings will give others hope and encouragement no matter what obstacles are put in their path."

Throughout her book you will see her struggles from domestic abuse, depression, financial despair, self-doubt and even suicide to the fulfillment of her dreams through love and resiliency.

"With October being Domestic Violence Awareness Month," Holly & Robert Tuchman, owners of RobertKent Galleries say, "it is fitting that we along with Tina are donating a portion of her book sales and art sales to liveSAFE Resources, Cobb County's only emergency shelter for those fleeing from domestic violence."

Original copies will be available at RobertKent Galleries they day of the show until supplies last. Pre-orders will soon be available at www.TinasFineArts.com

Tina A Stoffel is a local Artist residing in Marietta Georgia since 2006. She can be reached at 770-286-1155 or Admin@TinasFineArts.com

About RobertKent Galleries

Robert Tuchman started RobertKent Galleries in 2010 and began traveling the southeast providing a one of kind experience for top interior designers and their clients. He has worked with several hundred designers bringing the art into homes and businesses, working with them to find the perfect experience and artwork for their clients. He and his wife, Holly, opened a fine arts gallery and custom frame shop on the Historic Square in Marietta at 85 Church Street in June 2017. With their array of artists, there are works of art for every taste from abstract to contemporary to traditional as well as jewelry, pottery, wood pieces, sculptures and glass. With the growing art scene in Marietta, this is the perfect place to expand RobertKent Galleries and bring Robert's years of experience of finding and placing the right art for your home or business.
